

What have you gained professionally overall in recent (crisis) times?

Confidence

I feel more resilient despite all the stress

More autonomy, organisation and empathy!!!

Networking and collaborating with other educators around the world and in different disciplines/with different focuses

Lots of experience

Plan creatively

Become adept at online teaching :-) apart from learning to cope with remote teaching learning

I'm not sure I've gained professionally but I have had a sort of crisis of teacher identity.

Learned that there are new styles of teaching I never thought I would try in my classes....Technology rolls now!

What have you gained professionally overall in recent (crisis) times?

I had more opportunities to talk with my colleagues from all over the world online

I am very happy, I have attended a lot of webinars! very useful for my teaching

I learned that "anything" is possible when you are a teacher! :)

I had the chance to access to many CPD oportunities!

An improved ability to use the virtual enviro ment

compassion

Gained invaluable tech skills (faster than planned 😊).

Have gained confidence to teach online

To share ideas with my colleagues at school, looking for crossing projects that our students could develop

What have you gained professionally overall in recent (crisis) times?

The way how to enhance interaction and engagement of students at an online instruction setting during the pandemic

During pandemic time I learned more about how to teach online

Being able to do stuff because life still goes on and studying is possible when we want to

Experience and patience

Value the tech equipment I have at home; I've improved my skills when it comes to research info and resources in the web

New technical skills

More familiar with teaching platforms and sites also attended many international webinars and became more confident in teaching online.

I've learnt to use many different apps and platforms and kept communicated with my colleagues to work interdisciplinarily.

patience

What have you gained professionally overall in recent (crisis) times?

Computer skills

well known about the use of technologies in classroom

I learnt how to use different tools to communicate with the kids after lessons and how to get their attention although we are not face to face. We used more Nearpod, Kahoot

Learned to teach online , design online content, develop professionally both as a teacher & researcher while researching ERT, organised virtual int. conference.

In recent crisis time I have learnt how to teach students in online with patience 😊

Teaching online, being confidence and familiar using online resources. Enhanced my research skills

Informative,attended online webinars,conferences,doing academic English course

Using zoom, technical devices, and all tips.

being able to do stuff and studying when we want to because life still goes on. we need to call down and keep fighting with life :)

What have you gained professionally overall in recent (crisis) times?

I have formed my teacher friends group on whatsapp during pandemic period. That means a group of teachers are mentoring other teachers for exploratory action research. I learned from TR enhancement mentoring group. And practicing my skills.

A lot of Success stories ...great chance to learn ...

That a lot of issues of online distance teaching / online teaching have not been enough tackled as autonomy social and emotional factors find like minded people and the tendency to help each other to overcome challenges in education sector as well.

Digital skills enhancement (teacher and students)